Lennell,
I have been into a girl who turned night it was over - that you do because a girl like you deserves only the best I've enjoyed our friendship very much. I wish you the best always (especially with the boys (E.E.)) as if you needed any more luck,
Love and luck,
Jan
P.S. I think you are a good driver (what's what's get you thinking).

Lennell,
I have enjoyed knowing you the past two years. Lots of luck always. Love, K. Hicks

Lennell,
It is a pleasure knowing you and the best wishes for a happy and joyful future. I wish you.
Donald

Lennell,
I have immensely enjoyed being in all of your classes this year and especially study hall. I promise
I won't forget you at Broughton next year. Your sweet smile and pleasing personality will take you far in the future.
Good luck to a real sweet girl!
Mary Bailey

Lennell, Haven't we had some good times together?
I hope we continue to have them too. You're a very cute, sweet, and smart girl. With these qualities you're sure to go far. Good luck always.
I love ya,
Sharon
P.S. Good luck at getting you - know-who.

Dear Jennell,
 There's something that I have to tell you.
 Dear one there's something that I have to say. I've had a great time with ya in Eng,
 W.H., + Latin and I hope we can have more good times next year.
 Keep up the fine work.

Searching is a siren word
 Beckoning the questing minds of YRACsters
 Through terrazo corridors of chattering youth
 To find the heartbeat of Cary —
 To fathom the entity of Cary —
 How to depict the vital spark,
 The verity of Cary?
 In the bright sunlight of midday —
 During the quiet hours of the night —
 Within ourselves,
 With others —
 We seek a clue to the question,
 "What shall our YRAC theme be?"
 Wondering, pondering, searching,
 Always the question nudges,
 There is no rest from it.
 Perhaps, unknowingly and unknown, you are searching too,
 Perhaps, venturing together,
 We can discover that vital spark
 That glows on a thousand faces —
 The answer to our question,
 "What shall the YRAC theme be?"

*lot of love to a nice girl!
 Dawn Marks*

Jennell
 It has been a pleasure having you in my class. You are one of my best Biology students. I hope you the best of everything because you deserve it. I'll see you around next year, as a fr. of course. Drop by and see us next year.
 Always remembers how Biology is fun.
 Parker

Lennell, really We've missed this year had a blast
 as you hope to see more, this summer! next year. See you Lubb

Lennell,
 I certainly have enjoyed knowing you here past two years. I surely will miss you next year. Best of luck in the future. I know you'll be a success in life at anything you endeavor to do.
 Alma Jo Hall

To those who, untiring and unrewarded,
 Work, selflessly, in community, school, and home,
 Who go without that we may go with,
 Seeking to provide for us
 Before thinking of their own needs.
 Who lend a helping hand —
 A guiding light —
 A soft word of understanding, encouragement, or praise
 When a friend is needed most;
 To those who lead us unfalteringly
 Closer to distant goals
 In our most important footsteps
 Along the thoroughfare of life;
 To those who sustain us in moments of depression,
 Share our joys in moments of delight,
 And who, regardless, love throughout life;
 To our PARENTS, we dedicate this

Educators Lead in Quest for

RECEPTION after the September 15, 1961, dedication of the Paul W. Cooper Athletic Field finds Nancy Knott serving punch to Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Cooper and Mr. Clyde Keisler.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS' cookout, hosted by Mrs. Jordan, offers an excuse for relaxation to Mr. Cooper, Mr. Arbes, and daughter, Ann Arbes.

Quality Education—the phrase that has resounded from Manteo to Murphy—is now echoing within the halls of Cary. Several county-wide innovations, including uniform grading, extracurricular, graduation, and curricular strategies, mold Cary into a stronger institution. In May, an additional wing to a year-old school brings the luxuries of an adequate music department, auditorium, and student lounge.

During the halftime ceremonies of the first home football game, the school boards dedicate the Paul W. Cooper Athletic Field, honoring the district principal. A fifth classroom wing on the drawing board bolsters hope for alleviating crowded conditions of the Junior High School.

AS SHE SURROUNDS herself with scores of new books, Carol Mizelle discovers reading is contagious.

"SO THAT'S WHAT IT IS FOR!" Mrs. Jackson explains the card catalogue to Billy Creel and Lewis Clark.

After a year of setting-up house-keeping, the services of the school have cozier surroundings and more time to project and diversify their capacities. The library is magnified with a 400 volume increase; references are expanding with a new set of encyclopedias and a Readers' Guide coupled with the back stock of magazines. The guidance office works more closely with the Seniors to enhance their chances for success, in conjunction with routine functions. More students mean a split lunch period for cafeteria workers, and additional floor space adds to custodial tasks.

In Spring, we burst the bonds
 That hold us strong.
 Our minds wander with the gentle zephyr
 Wander with the soft winds
 And wonder at the slender shoots of waving grass.
 The sound of returning birds
 Calling sharply in the fresh spring air
 Mingles in daydreams
 With the sweet smell of new buds and warm earth.
 Spring Fever!
 How lazy we feel,
 Yet how revitalized after a long winter.

The Curve of the

"WE HUFF AND PUFF," gasp
 Junior-Senior Dance decorators Bobby Ward, Johnny Brady, Ray Ruth, and Bobby Edgerton.

Spring, the awakening,
 And we awake.
 The start of new activities
 And we are active.
 The heightening of excitement
 And we are excited.
 Spring, the season of new growth,
 New horizons, new goals.
 Our activities encompass all these and more.
 Is our theme in Spring,
 Our many-faceted Spring?

THEN Nancy Price ponders,
 "Don't you think it would be better if . . . ?"

"NOW that we have them, how do we wear them?" muse graduates-to-be Pat Ennis and Suzanne Mears.

IMPATIENT TO FINISH,
 Nancy Allison exclaims, "While you decide, I'll decorate."

Year Circles to Prom and Graduation

THE GENTLE GREEN of magnolias leaves a Deep South aura and momentous moments in the spirits of Juniors and Seniors.

A PAUSE in entertainment finds Becky Mullen and Doug Allison in quest of a thirst quencher.

TWELVE YEARS PASS in a fleeting moment as Jeanne Hege receives her long-awaited diploma from Mr. Paul Cooper.

1961 MARSHALS

David Bailey, Chief; First Row: Amelia Phillips, Sharon Miller. Second Row: Arlene Miller, Billie Arrington. Third row: Billy Elledge, Butch Brannon.

AS RED CROSS VOLUNTEER,
Mary Bailey makes her summer hours more meritorious.

Squatted on red sun-baked clay—
Five of them—long, lean and lonely,
Surrounded by struggling young grasses,
Visited by a minority of “Summer-schoolers”
While regular tenants are away
At summer jobs and amusements
Beckoned, by heat waves, to coolness—
Pool, sea, and mountain shade
Leisure time (growing into boredom)
Contrasts with activity
Perspiration mixes with perspicacity
As Caryites build for the future
With summer employment.

Cary Merges Into

JERRY HAILEY swabs decks against a seascape setting.

SUMMERTIME, A FAMILY TIME,
finds the J. D. Griffins preparing meals for a church retreat at Crabtree.

SHARING kids' summer joys, Landon Ivey pilots the park train.

Sunstruck Summer

A FUN FILLED WEEK lies ahead for Brenda Keisler and Helen Doggett at State 4-H Club Week.

ARLENE MILLER PLAYS HOST to Jackie Dartigues and Chantal Leforte, French visitors, while Billy Elledge enjoys Chantal's talent.

ADVANCED BIOLOGICAL STUDIES at N. C. State fill Laura Milner's summer.

WARM AND HONEY-COLORED DAYS find Bob Sandford faithful to the job, even with distractions.

Successful Band

Bright clouds of Swirling lace and frill,
Blaring bands, cheering crowds Happy faces, sweating officials, and Merriment — Parade delights — Excitement —
These moments of festivity — then
Day ends — evening is nigh.
Light, fluffy flapjacks
Heaped generously on platters
Before popping eyes and watering mouths.
Our beings are filled and satiated.
With sunset — eventide—
Evening melodies,
Swinging rhapsodies,
Rhythmic, pulsating jazz tunes Float on soft breezes at the end of Another wonderful, successful Band Day for the band and Band Boosters.

MAN IN A HURRY, Mr. Jack O. White, utilizes his motor scooter to eliminate the complexities of directing three bands.

INTRIGUING the audience at Jazz Concert, Mr. White is Cary's man with a horn.

"WHAT A MESS", sighs Neal Lanning as he cuts up sausage for the Pancake Supper.

Day Paves Way for Regional Festival

PRETTY PLUSH SMILES of Mary Rea Moore and Diane Matthews spread the buoyancy of YRAC.

THE SPIRIT OF SOUTHERN REBELS is illustrative of YRACsters school spirit as they support the band.

A DOUBLE AWARD, Elizabeth City Majorette receives a trophy and smile from Miss North Carolina.

HOMETOWN BELLES grace Chatham Street and the hearts of its inhabitants.

Homecoming

STUDENTS get freshly ordered mums with the green "C's."

"GO AWAY, PEPPY," begs Amelia Phillips, Homecoming Chairman, as she designs crown.

Homecoming!
High spirits become a Caryism—
Cheers ring through the halls—
Excitement is supreme,
And as the last rays of sun
Fade and disappear—
The game commences—
Queens, elected by the populace,
Begin sparkling reigns over loyal subjects.

WITH THE AVID INTEREST
of Clyde Keisler,
Basketball Queen Betty Brannon
autographs a ball.

NEWLY-CROWNED QUEEN,
Dianne Woodward, is saluted with
"The Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

REGAL RADIANCE of Miss Football shines before eyes of cheering fans.

Smiles Capture a Campus

AN OPTIMISTIC "ADIOS" sends the football team against Ahooskie for district championship.

THE SMELL OF COTTON CANDY and the cry of the barkers pose a new Shangri-La for Sandy Gilmore at the State Fair.

Bright Spirits Color Cary with Autumn

ACHING ARCHES after a two-and-one-half-mile hike evoke groans from Majorette Lynn Brown.

Hot reds, spicy oranges,
 Flashing yellows and deep browns,
 Whistling wind, rustling leaves,
 Crying flocks flying south.
 Brisk, restless moving
 From the quiet dreams of summer
 To the busy activities of winter.
 Converging from our different directions,
 We, also, migrate
 Back from summer's Pleasures
 To winter's obligations,
 Slowly settling down
 With the memories of the glorious summer
 Still ringing in our minds.
 A new year, a new beginning,
 A new yet familiar way of life.
 Is this the solution to our quest?

CO-CAPTAINS, Bobby Brannon and Richard Austin, present Coach Lane with a "Gee, Thanks" package.

A SHORT PAUSE IN PERFORMANCE
 while Dr. Bland reinforces lineman Larry Hamilton during game.

Hue

SENATOR JOHN JORDAN awards Arlene Miller Citizen-of-Month for September.

Tension Mounts as Exam Time Spirals

"UMMMM, A HOT DOG
certainly does taste grand after a two-hour-exam,"
opines Willard Jones,
Clyde Keisler, Phil
Senger, and Bobby Ward.

12:30 A.M.: MACBETH'S sleep-walking scene
gives way to peaceful dreams for exam-ridden
Frank Holding.

9:30 A.M.:
As zero hour nears,
Bogie Winstead crams.

Half to come—half has gone
Now at Christmas, a time for rest
A preparation period—
Slowly, surely, nerves are tightened
Cramming, last minute dreads . . .
Snow intervenes—a soft, silent savior.
Still the tension mounts—
The worst is expected . . . and then Exams! Whew!
At last, time to plan for Spring.

12:30 A.M.:
"Grade sheets
due," groans
Mrs. Marley.

11:11 A.M.:
Gail Fowler ponders over a question as the minutes tick by.

3:00 P.M.:
"Yippee, last one's over!"
beams Rena Cosimini.

to the Summit

SNOOPY
Carolyn McLean,
Mrs. Lorenz,
and Nancy Stone peep at others' resolutions.

THE SNOW AND SLEET that delayed exams also slowed Butch Brannon's bus route.

"HEY, LOOK! I did pass that American History exam!" glows Barbara Jenkins to onlooker Jim Ivey.

Eye-Catching

PLEASED, PRAISED, and PROUD describes John Theys as he represents North Carolina with his binary digital computer at the National Science Fair in St. Louis, Missouri.

ALL-EASTERN WINNERS, Bobby Brannon and Richard Austin, discuss possible plays.

MR. G. D. ARNDT LIGHTS the eyes of Helen Doggett, Arlene Miller, Larry Senger, and Robert D. Flake, coach, State 4-H Judging Team.

MISS ALICE ANNE HORNE—Raleigh Little Theatre, role of Sidonia in THE WALTZ OF THE TOREADORS.

Mrs. Claire J. Marley—President, Wake County Chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa.

Mr. Jack O. White—Stan Kenton Stage Band Clinic, Jr. Chamber of Commerce "Man of the Year."

Shall We Visit Our

'Classrooms'

Searching is a siren word
Beckoning the questing YRACsters
With senses on tiptoe
Through many doors
To see heads bent in concentration history on a screen.
To sniff
    the aroma of new-baked bread
    the reek of formaldehyde.
To hear
    the lilting harmony of choral voices the vibrant tones of trumpet, bass, and sax debaters voices with minds of their own staccato barrage of clicking keys, the raucous rasp of a power saw ripping into a two by four,
    hiss of a Bunsen burner,
    the liquid sounds of a foreign tongue, solving the language traffic jam.
    silence —
    silence alive with sibilant rustling of pages searched by exploring minds, hall clocks ticking away the moments that march us toward maturity.
A school awake and live to the knocking of opportunity
    We pause to take the longer look, the deeper thought,
    Is this the answer to our question,
    “‘What shall the YRAC theme be?’”

School Major

Although the national trend seems to lean toward the sciences, literary taste range still exists.

A new light has been thrown on application for acquired knowledge. Composition and expression of opinion are stressed to accustom students to deductive thinking. Oral presentation of monthly book reports and weekly speeches fosters on-the-feet thinking.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, Pat Lasater and Jeff Alford, scribble a theme for English

"OH, MY GOSH!"

RIT OF

Inspiration, Perspiration,

LIKE AN APPLE FOR A TEACHER, a smile for a right response is the policy of Miss Alice Anne Horne, English department.

NORTH CAROLINA AUTHOR, Carl Goerch, helps Diane Matthews and Margaret Long observe National Book Week at Cary.

The reading of classics sparks literature and breaks the monotony of textbook study only. Composing original poetry booklets promotes deep understanding and concentration. Memorization and dramatization brings Shakespeare's "Macebeth" alive in the mind of Seniors. Source themes are begun early to lessen spring and graduation duties. The new enthusiastic ways of teaching are reflected by enthusiastic learning.

JAN GRIMES is doing a grand job of selling a book report as can be told by the captivated audience.

English Theme Ingredients

"I'M NEXT," motions Rena Cosimini as she waits patiently for Miss Horne.

"THE THANE OF FIFE had a wife. Where is she now?" broods Jessica Branch as somnambule Lady Macbeth.

ABSORBED in a musical trance, David Humphreys and David Griffin prepare to pour out their feelings on paper.

PORTRAYING A TROJAN WOMAN, Amelia Phillips displays an anguished expression.

WAITING IN THE WINGS, the next acts nervously watch Doris Wheeler portray Mary, Queen of Scots.

First Forensic Class Enters State

WHILE CLYDE KEISLER DEBATES, Curtis Finch, Billy Elledge, and Phil Senger confer to prove his point true or false.

DAVID MUSTIAN, a former Cary High School graduate, addresses the forensic class.

"ENOUGH—with which of thy iniquities shall I begin my recital," quotes Kakie Jordan as she stages Electra.

THE IMPERSONATION OF CAPTURED GI'S in the Korean War set the stage for Phil Senger's and Rudy Partin's original act.

Debates

Set in the new theatre, the long-sawaited forensic class is realized. These students, after intense oratory study, see the climax of their efforts in a District winning team in the State Triangular Debate. Not to be out done, Creative Writers compose essays and poems to net their usual lion's share of publications. The Drama Club also primes itself with a preliminary production of skits for its climactic spring presentation of IF I WERE KING.

From New Music

A cerulean blue room, two walls fully hung with rust-toned drapes of air-puffed velvet, a tiered floor, starting low and climbing higher—a hidden Moulin Rouge? No, it's just the new band room—the room that holds the Cary band as they practice for their matchless concerts bringing top ratings, for recording sessions evoking records that extol their supreme reputation, and for the concerts at spring and Christmas that draw crowds to P. T. S. A. meetings, assemblies, and the high school auditorium. In the adjoining room, with the new piano, the chorus prepares for concerts, too. Aside from regular performances, the chorus participates in a Christmas television show.

"IT'S GOTTA BE HERE SOMEWHERE!" Steve Holleman searches for Algeria as he prepares to discuss current world problem areas.

LEARNING OF MEN of the past whose lives influence the future, Phil Russell and Mary Ann Rood decorate the world history tree.

Fledgling Course Tries

Plato, George Washington, Alexander I, James II, and General Robert E. Lee are only a few of the men that Cary Senior High School students discuss if they take a social studies course. These men help to mold and cultivate our future. A study of wars, discoveries, achievements, and important events of the past gives a clearer understanding of the outcome of the future. Students are constantly striving for a better understanding of events in the present and future. To aid in that struggle, Cary Senior High School offers to the students five courses in social studies—world history, United States history, geography, problems of democracy, economics and sociology.

Its Wings

A new course this year, Problems of Democracy, renders the students a more vivid picture of portents of the future. This year more emphasis has been placed on world history notebooks of different periods of history. In this class there is an increase of about thirty per cent over last year's students. Economics and sociology classes visit the Dorothea Dix Hospital for a first hand view of improved conditions in a mental institution. They use films as a tool for the study of community life. Delinquency study is animated by a lecture of the Central Prison warden. All in all, these tools used in social studies increase the students comprehension of the future through a study of the past.

Ed Pleasants and Jane Ivey

A DISCUSSION of the issues involved in the bond vote help Ed Pleasants and Jane Ivey to be well-informed citizens.

HISTORY AROUND THE WORLD?
Bobbie Trent, Dianne Weathers, and Dorothy Sox portray Cortez and Montezuma in a seventh grade history skit.

AN ATTENTIVE AUDIENCE listens to Colonel K. B. Bailey, Warden of Central Prison, discuss the court system.

The whir of tape recorders emitting the precise sound of French and Spanish greatly aid students of these classes. More emphasis on literary works gives glimpses of people whose lives, languages, and loves are different from ours. The closer the world draws, the more students enroll in foreign language study. This year Cary gains a new language instructor and Latin classes see as much as a fifty per cent addition.

100 Per cent Expansion in Algebra III

"DOES THIS remind you of something?" questions Ken Russell while Grady Miller tries to explain the geometric designs they built.

DRAWING A GRAPH on the blackboard are Wade Gilfillan and Horace Bureson, who willingly aid their teacher.

A. J. MOORE seems to be stumped on a television math problem.

SEARCHING FOR THE MOON?

No, Willard Jones, Joe Fourie, and Doug Humphreys apply their math while measuring the flagpole with a transit.

Axioms, postulates, corollaries, numbers, signs, radicals, laws, theorems, and formulas are key words in the mathematical dictionary. Cary math students learn the meanings and application of these terms. Plane geometry students soon find out that their course is not just drawing pretty geometrical figures, but that the real goal of the course is to teach them to think in a quick, accurate, and logical manner.

New algebra books are bringing a fresh approach to equation solving. At the Junior High, eighth graders use the television, as well as the classroom teacher, to help them delve into the world of numbers. For those who conquered the proofs of geometry and the equations of first and second year algebra, the Cary math department offers trigonometry, solid geometry and Algebra III for college bound students.

Laws for Students

All the world is a test tube for Cary science students to investigate. This year more advanced, up-to-date text books are aiding the students in science. The use of television gives Junior High physical science students a broader scope of learning. Long awaited laboratory equipment for the chemistry and physics classes is a welcome teaching aid. These tools are opening doors of experiment and discovery for inquisitive students. Biology is more intensified this year than in the past as are chemistry and physics.

The latest office equipment is necessary to prepare business education students for the jump from high school to the business world. The eleven new typewriters Cary receives includes an electric one. A full six-weeks of rotation allows each student to feel out the different styles of typewriters. Quick, peppy records for rhythm beckon typists to higher, more uniform speeds. Advanced students participate in a two-weeks adding machine course. Business education is certainly not an island in curriculum for there are bridges to other subjects, too. Book-keeping provides a thorough airing of fundamental mathematics, while shorthand seems like a different language altogether.

As more than a million young women will become homemakers in the next year, Cary has its share. They get the arts they will need, not only in their regular class, but also in such special lectures as Red Cross mouth-to-mouth respiration, and home economy. As the Cary community goes more suburban, agriculture turns from the specifics of farming to the generalities of suburban life.

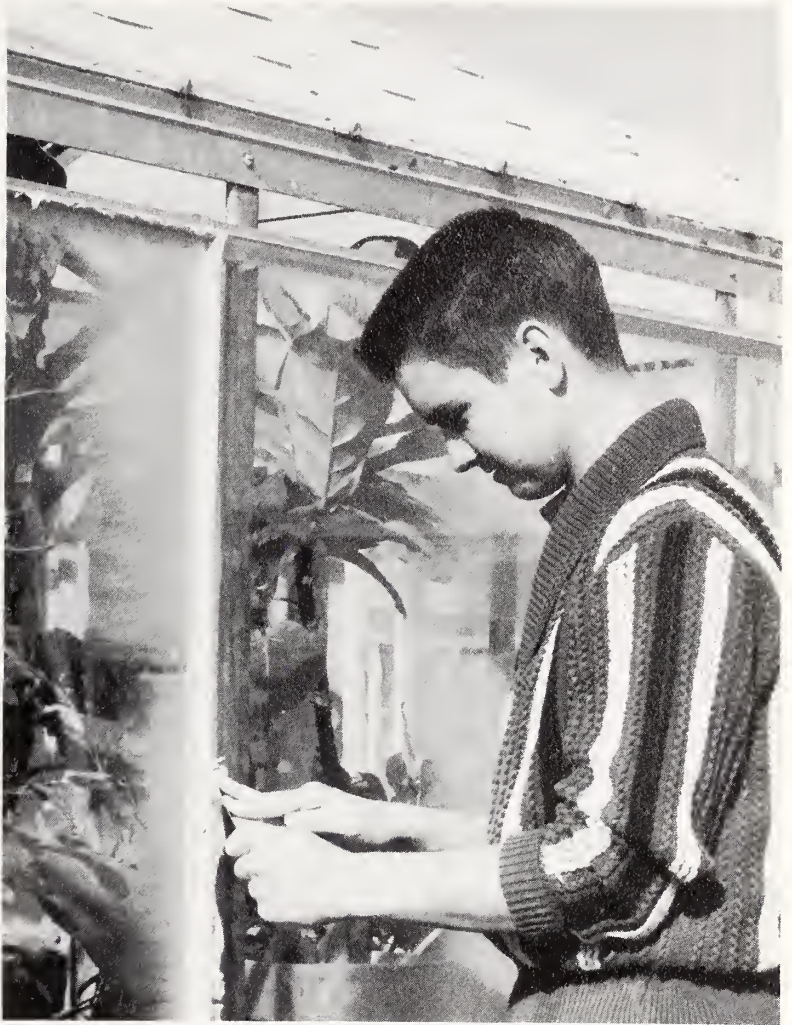

"UGH!" exclaims Marilyn Woods as the nurse gives instruction in artificial respiration. Interested onlookers are Brenda Beasley, Myra Thompson, and Diane Markham.

Spirit Inspired by Powder -Puff Puffing

Launching the Student Council's active year, Better School Spirit Week creates enthusiasm in school activities. The Powder-Puff Derby and the Student-Faculty basketball game are beneficial to one of the Council aims—good student-faculty relations. The first Interclub Council is an asset promoting active club participation in projects.

The school seal fund—a fund to acquire a distinctive enlarged seal for beautification of Cary Senior High—came into being due to the effort of the I.C.C. That the students' needs are of first concern is evidenced in the council's publication of printed student directories, the access to a public suggestion box, and a well-stocked supply store.

This search for a unique theme continues while plans for blank verse and splashy divisions are voted upon. Picture taking and composition lessons are experienced by organized photographers. With co-operation among the staff, and works of the faithful "dark-room man" the book slowly shapes up. The answer to the search is at last found, and captured for you in YRAC '62.

National Education Week put forward by the Future Teachers of America, makes a hit at Cary, especially with the assembly featuring the local state senator. With three county officers these clubbers are more active than ever. Their helpful deeds for teachers make them indispensable, particularly at exam time.

The third year of the Future Business Leaders of America is a busy one. During latter fall the sale of stationery lays a foundation for the budget of their coming projects. Such speakers as those from business colleges are "eye openers" on their chosen world. The climax of their year is the state convention, right around the corner.

Closer Home

Cary Future Homemakers of America fill many capacities. After the successful Mother-Daughter Banquet, the same exuberant hospitality is shown fathers on Daddy Date Night. Spring brings rallies and Cary F.H.A.'ers are on the political bandwagon, getting members elected to state and county offices. Others are not forgotten as they give a party at the N. C. School for the Blind. With summer, hot days melt into coolness at White Lake at the F.H.A. Camp. For the coming term, members welcome the county officers at their annual workshop. Inductees receive similar social welcome at a hamburger fry.

Challenging Competition Core of Future

Service is the keyword in Future Homemakers' deeds. The Heart Fund Drive, the Home for the Aged, PTSA meetings, and flowers for the office, all see their helping hand. Finances for these "helping hands" are raised with the Autumn Leaves Ball and sale of Stanley products. Competition sums up the proposed activities of the Future Farmers of America. Among the contests in which they compete are land judging, public speaking, livestock judging, and parliamentary procedure. Locally there is the project of a furnace for these willing workers to complete.

A COLORFUL BULLETIN

board created by Mary Rea Moore and Don Grimes celebrates Pan-American Day.

The Cuban invasion heads the list of program topics for Los Alegros, the Cary Spanish Club. At the Pan American Day assembly, they share with other students an exiled Cuban university president, featured in the Readers' Digest. The sawdust and popcorn of the circus compose the atmosphere for ushering at the Big Top to raise finances. Back at school, dramatization of Spanish stories increase the members' fluency at fall programs.

While the "happy ones" study Cuba, Machembiphy members dwell on more scientific subjects. These Science Clubbers visit the state and regional Science Fairs where a fellow member gains first place in the physical science division. Tours of the State College nuclear reactor and textile department lead them beyond classroom science. Another venturesome club is the French Club which is in the program-planning, constitution-writing stage.

Cary Imps Conference Champions

Cross-country, the infant of Cary athletics, started its second season with only a skeleton crew of the final squad. As other members joined the team, more meets were added, giving each squad member more meet experience. At the climax of a building year for cross-country, Steve Blanchard finished an excellent fifteenth place in a rather large field at the State cross-country meet in Chapel Hill.

One of Cary's two spring sport teams, baseball, had its winning moments, also. The 1961 White Imps baseball team finished third in a hotly contested conference race with an eight wins—three losses record.

A FUQUAY SPRINTER here defeats Milton Hobbs and Jimmie Satterwhite easily in a 100 yard dash, but Cary won handily anyhow, 76-18.

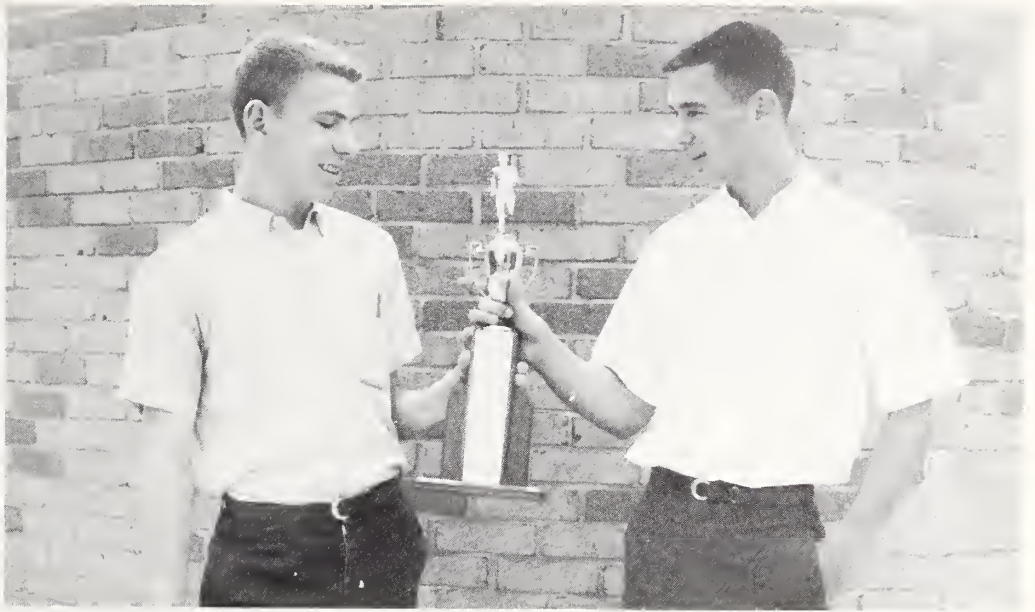

The 1961 Cary Harriers romped over virtually every opponent en route to their first conference track championship. After an impressive 63-52 win over Campbell College, Cary lost to 4-A power Raleigh in a quadrangle meet. The Imps then promptly disposed of all their conference rivals in easy fashion, and climaxed the practically new Cary sport's season with a resounding conference championship win.

RICHARD AUSTIN GRABS A touchdown pass.

The Imps opened the season with a strong first team and a prayer, for reserves were few and small. Their prayers were answered in the form of desire; desire that brought them an 8-3 victory record where experts predicted defeat. From the victorious District III 2-A Champions emerged four All-conference players: Richard Austin, Bobby Brannon, Bobby Ferrell, and Richard McGhee.

CARY-SMITHFIELD

Sporting a stingy defense that held Smithfield to only 52 yards rushing, and allowed the Red Devils to cross the Cary 40 only twice, the Imps smothered the highly favored Red Devils, 21-7. Narrowly averting a shutout, Smithfield made their lone score before half-time. Cary scored two second quarter touchdowns and coasted in on their defense.

CARY-FUQUAY

Cary marched for a clutch, last-second touchdown to post a 13-7 upset win over Fuquay. The Imps stalled after scoring in the opening minutes, then gave up the tying score on Fuquay's 93 yard drive. Don Jones later fell on the Falcon fumble that set up Brannon's 6 yard winning dash.

CARY-WAKE FOREST

Three Cary third quarter touchdowns ruined Wake Forest's Homecoming, 28-0. Bobby Brannon's 25 and 44 yard dashes and a stingy Imp defense that held the Bulldogs to only 42 yards offensively, teamed up to be more than cellar-dwellers could handle.

CARY-SELMA

Bobby Brannon made up for a first period goal-line fumble by scoring both Cary touchdowns that nipped Selma, 13-0. Brannon's last quarter 17 yard sprint and Selma's inability to move the ball, combined to skunk the visitors.

CARY-CLAYTON

After Jack Chappell's 53 yard first period touchdown dash, Cary fell behind 9-13 on Clayton's third quarter rally. The Imps pecked away at the comets' lead, finally putting the sloppily-played game away, 23-13, on Brannon's two last quarter scores.

CARY-BENSON

Jack Chappell and Bobby Brannon each scored two touchdowns, and Jimmy Satterwhite snake-danced 40 yards for another as Cary routed Benson, 38-0. Benson, who let Monk Perry and Chappell scamper 58 and 46 yards respectively with intercepted Benson passes, gained only 70 offensive yards and never threatened.

A CARY UPSET WIN gives assistant coach Peebles a free victory ride.

CARY-APEX

After 14 years of waiting, the conference's other "Team Named Desire," Apex, finally upset Cary, 14-13. The Yellow Jackets, the team "most with the leastest," held on to a 7-6 half-time lead, expanding it to 14-6 in the late fourth quarter. Bobby Brannon's bulldozing 65 yard kickoff return was not enough to keep Cary from its first conference loss.

CARY-MILLBROOK

Jimmy Satterwhite passed for three touchdowns and scored another as Cary blasted Millbrook, 42-0. Richard Austin grabbed two of "Sap's" tosses for 6 and 43 yards; Chappell took the other for 29 yards. Satterwhite, Brannon, and Don Pate ended Imp scoring with 17, 22, and 3 yard dashes, respectively.

CARY-GARNER

A fired-up Cary team, stopping a Garner drive on their 4 yard line, got revenge for last year's conference title loss by squashing the Rams, 14-6. Richard Austin grabbed a 22-yard aerial, and Bobby Brannon snake-danced 31 yards with an intercepted pass to build a Cary 14-0 half-time lead. The Imps lost their shut-out on a last quarter Phipps to Ormond 7 yard toss.

CARY-AHOSKIE

Ahoskie, racing against the clock, marched 48 yards to score the last-minute touchdown that nipped Cary, 21-14. Cary's 7-0 lead on Austin's 16 yard scoring catch dissolved when two long Ahoskie runs, one by Charles Tayloe for 78 yards, gave the Indians a 14-7 lead that lasted until the fourth quarter. The Imps, deep in their own territory most of the game, tied Ahoskie 14-14 on a 7-yard Whitley to Satterwhite pass, and that set up the fateful Indian march. Ahoskie, who rushed for a fantastic 307 yards, eventually crushed Morehead City, 33-7, to cop the Eastern 2-A crown.

Little Imps Tempt Rivals with Defeat

Searching to build a winning Cary team for the future years, both the Cary Junior High football and basketball teams found a winning little Imps team in the present years. Going undefeated in county competition in both sports, Cary rolled to two undisputed Wake County championships. Their only losses come from the larger Raleigh junior high schools in closely played games.

White Imp Cagers Recover After a Slow Start

Perennially a slow starter, the 1961 edition of the White Imp basketball proved to be no different. After heavy losses from last year's team, Cary dropped five straight games at the beginning of the season, all by close scores. The Imps then bounced back by routing four straight conference opponents. The well balanced team edged into fourth place in a tight conference race with eight wins and six losses at midseason.

After Fast Start

After jumping off to a blazing start, winning four of their first five games, the damsels' luck ran out. They proceeded to drop four of their next five games, many by close scores, as they sank to sixth place in the conference race. Averaging over 40 points a game at midseason on 521 season points, the girls bounced back from their misfortunes by crushing Millbrook, 63-19, revitalizing hopes for the conference title at conference tournament time.

The embryonic look of the newcomers to high school disappears in hot taste, for the class accustoms itself quickly to the changing of classes, club meetings, pep rallies, new teachers, and new faces of fellow students. The first class officers are elected the Sophomore year. The highlight of the class social activities is a Beatnik Party, financed by an admission charge.

As Sophomores, some students manage to make the ball team, but rarely first string, and scholastically, good grades are hard to compass. "Progress is our most important product," the General Electric slogan, could well be a Cary High School slogan, because as Juniors, the 1962 graduating class moves to the new million dollar Senior High School.

Leaders are evident as several Juniors begin taking leadership positions in clubs as officers. The class officers set forth the first money-making project, that of selling magazines, to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom, the theme being, "Southern Plantation." The first realization of maturity comes to the Juniors as they participate in "Career Day." Past tradition is challenged too.

The '62 graduating class is the first class at Cary to receive class rings during the Junior year. Preparation pace quickens as the Junior-Senior Prom approaches. Spanish moss, a wishing well, a southern plantation scene and a bubbling multi-colored water fountain, make the "Southern Plantation" Junior-Senior Prom the first and most beautiful Junior-Senior in the Senior High gym.

Then comes the year of endings and beginnings, the end of the home town high school and close fellowship with friends, and the beginning of a more mature attitude toward life and its enduring responsibilities. It is the SENIOR year. Class members star in every facet of Cary Senior High School and its activities. With the Cary Seniors pushing it forward, the determined band takes honors in the state and, for the first time, in the nation. Several are officers in clubs on the county, district, and state levels.

Others attend national conventions in 4-H, Future Homemakers and Distributive Education, and win state awards. Athletes make all-star teams, and others rate high on the Merit Scholarship examinations and in advanced science classes at State College. Cary's 1962 graduating class is a class of quality. College Day helps the fifty five percent planning to attend college make decisions affecting their future.

Caps and gowns, invitations, calling cards, diplomas, mascots, and projects are debated in Senior class meetings which result in the sponsoring of "Senior Work Week" and a candy bar sale as the Senior money-making projects.

At Homecoming, Better School Spirit Week, Band Day, athletic events, and school projects, Seniors are leading, organizing, helping, and promoting to make them successful.

Senior Class Meetings Spark

The college entrance examination reports are given to students in January 1962, helping many Seniors make a decision on whether or not to attend college.

As underclassmen stand while Seniors walk into assemblies, as Seniors eat lunch two minutes early, and as Seniors take advantage of other Senior privileges, there is a sense of accomplishment and maturity as others look up to them. Using the new theater for the first time, the Dramatics Club presents the traditional Senior Play.

The SENIOR YEAR of the 1962 graduating class is the most glorious year at Cary High School, for it gives each member an intimate, greenhorn glimpse into the dire responsibilities in life as an upcoming adult. Having lived through "Freshman fools," "wise Sophomores," and "jolly Juniors," they feel equal to coping with the vicissitudes of "sophisticated Seniors." No longer children, the graduates are now looking forward to the future, whether it be a college education, a new job, or the armed forces.

No matter how humble or how great, each Senior in the 1962 graduating class will make a comfortable place for himself in the nuclear age, just as he made a place four years ago as a novice in the incoming Freshman class. The recognition and guidance given him by the faculty and administration over the past four years has nurtured a young adult who is ready to face further challenges in a more demanding environment.

Cary Juniors have finally passed the half-way mark in their high school education. This year they go through the flurry of ordering class rings, which have the school seal engraved on them for the first time. They think about plans for college, and what to do after graduation. The Juniors also slave over the Junior-Senior Prom, and determining the theme makes many vibrant discussions.

On a sunny September day in 1961, Cary Senior High's second Sophomore Class begins the school year. The novelties of class meetings and election of class officers start them off in high spirits. Busy schedules and extra curricular activities keep the spirits up.

Planning ahead for Junior activities, the Sophomores hold a candy sale to raise needed funds. Cash prizes are offered for top salesmen to promote the sales.

at Cary Future

Projects and reports, reports and projects are called for throughout all the classes: Sophomores are constantly busy with their English projects, science projects, and projects for their foreign language and business courses. Book reports, historical reports, biographical reports, and biological reports keep them busy during the year. However, despite these extras, the Sophomores find time to savor the fun-filled side of life, too.

to Busy School Schedules

The Sophomores are the first class to graduate with several forward-reaching steps added to a course of study. Unlike classes of previous years, of whom seventeen credits were required for graduation, the class of '64 needs eighteen credits. Also new lines of study in different fields are offered. The vocational line is available for students not planning for further study at college, and the academic course is offered for college-bound students seeking higher education. At the end of the high school studies, two separate diplomas will be awarded, specifying the course of study for which the requirements have been completed successfully. All these steps have been added to aid students in the search for knowledge and a pleasant high school career.

The Freshmen are in an in-between phase, being the oldest of the junior high and the youngest of the senior high.

Sports are a big part of the lives of junior high school students. Football and basketball are enthusiastically supported. Sports-minded members of the Freshman Class participate actively in these sports.

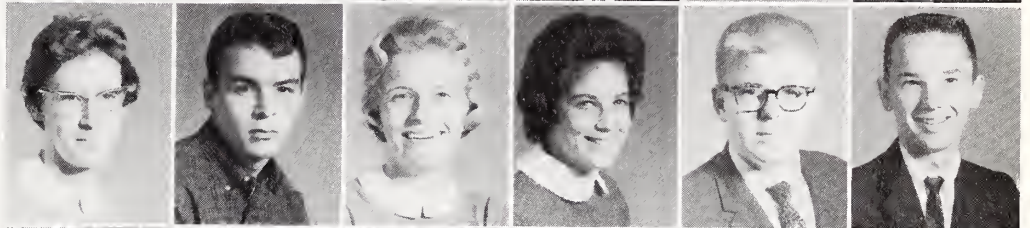

This year there are a wide variety of extra curricular activities. Some belong to the newly formed Science Club or Library Club, while others belong to service organizations such as the Student Council.

"If time be heavy on your hands". If only this were so, exclaim the Freshmen. Indeed, they are busy rushing back and forth between classes, struggling with lockers, and hoping to get to class on time.

Why? This is the timeless question that early teens have begun to ask by the time of Junior High School entry. They have come to a realization of the limitless knowledge to be captured and mastered. This is the time to make beautiful and lasting friendships. Eighth Graders are exhilarated with life and anxious to begin living and searching for the maturity that will make responsible adulthood possible.

Searching is a siren word
Beckoning the guesting YRACsters
On shopping safaris
To visit the loyal merchants whose interest in the education of youth is reflected in the YRAC
Tramping feet on cement sidewalks
Scurrying here – pausing there – To admire
    machinery hammering for progress
To try services offered
To buy
    products for discriminating customers.
To thank interested and civic-minded businessmen whose unselfish interest in today's youth proves the confidence they have in us.
They lead the way – set the pace –
Are they the answer to our question,
“What shall the YRAC theme be?”

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.

In deepest gratitude, we the YRAC staff of '62 say "thank you" to our advertisers. Because of you, our dreams have become a reality, a reality of which we are proud. You have given generous help without which we could have done nothing. Financial confidence is not all we have received from you. We have gained a deeper, a more satisfying confidence, that of knowing that others are interested in today's youth. We go forth to meet the cruelties of life, knowing that you, the guiding, care.

The administration and teachers who have made special exceptions for us to be able to meet deadlines deserve our thanks. We give it with sincere indebtedness.

To a very special friend for his myriad artistic contributions, we try to express in simple words our deep appreciation.

Our undying appreciation goes to Mrs. W. H. Price for her constant hospitality and forbearance. Without her quiet inspiration, our work would have been more difficult.

Realizing how enormous the task of typing our YRAC is, we bestow our Chief Typist Andie Dickinson and her "girls"; Betty Jones, Nancy Knott, Sandra Cline, Carolyn Cole, Jane Ivey, Mary Jo Ferrell, and Sandy Gilmore our profound thanks.

To you who have helped us, we thank you!

Linnell,
Well, this year is almost over and I am glad. I have had fun but the school work has gotten me down a lot that driving of yours is not bad, really. May you find success in future years. Jeff
Sue

The siren song of searching
Lures questing YRACsters
Through many doors,
Turns many handles,
Lifts many latches.
While asking, seeking, discovering,
We share a common identity with others
Searching — with gaiety and gusto —
Acquiring, filling malleable minds with keys
To present pleasure,
Future portents.
From the broad panorama
A pattern emerges —
An image —
Suddenly, we perceive the answer —
From many ingredients
The vital ingredient distilled —
The joy of asking, seeking, finding — Lies in the question, "What shall our YRAC theme be?"
Our question is the answer we give to you:
YRAC '62

Best of Luck until I see you again next year at the old C.H.S.
Remember Biology +
P. Geometry. Best wishes
Caitlin D.

Lennell,
 It's been great fun knowing you. You're a darling gal with good look & a great personality. Best of luck in the future. See ya this summer!

Love ya,
 Barbara

Lennell,

Don't forget that wild afternoon with D, G, and B.
 Boy, that was fun, wasn't it? I've never had so much fun.

I really enjoy riding with you, but please don't go around bumping into any more trees or driving several miles while the E brake is on. O.K.? ! ? ! ?

A friend
 Susan D.

I've enjoyed having access with you & seeing your bright face each morning. Good luck on the RAC next year & in everything you do. May R.

It's been great having you in England & Latin this year. I'll never get out of your party afterwards. Hope to see you next year. Watch out! There's a party coming!

Dear Lennell, Next time get them to submit a pencil copy for censorship & then copy them in.
 Seriously, good luck
 Mary Ann

Lennell,
 I hate to mess up your RAC with my handwriting but I want to wish you luck and love.

To Carroll Lennell Allen, Lots of luck to a real cute girl. It's been fun knowing you these past two years.
I hope our friendships will continue even though I'll be going to Broughton next year. Best wishes to you and Earl, ha! ha!, in your future. Keep up the good grades and stay in the Beta Club.

Ken Russell

Lennell (pencil)
We have been great fun getting to know you better in our "quiet" study hall! I think you are a very sweet, nice, good refined, cultured, cute girl! Please also say "good luck" to your next year. May your days be filled with happiness and joy and may your love affair continue on through the years.
Love,
Bonny
Pittman

Lex -

It sure has been great fun with you this year in Latin, Lunch, and at all the parties. I do hope you are not mad at me about what I accidentally told Earl the other night. Be sweet this summer. I hope to see you alot this summer at the pool.

P.S. Dont miss ~~me~~ too much next year.

neg (not J.G.)

Lennell,
It's sure been great knowing such a world History brain as you. Don't go too fast in your DKW and watch those trees.
I'll see you next year.

John (Treasurer)
P.S. Dont forget to vote for me next year!

Lennell,
Best of luck
to a real sweet & cute girl. Lots of luck in the future on whatever you undertake. Hope to see ya next year.
Behave yourself
this summer. Luff ya

Lennell,
It's been real nice knowing you this year - and fun!
Biology was a howl that we lived through it - Maybe I'll see you this summer - if not, next year. Be good and have fun!
Luff ya!
Gat

Lennell,
It's really been grand knowing a wonderful gal like you. My only comment is that you and your crew talk more of your people know personality. But wonderful about as you are now.
Please to about you and may the
and not know you much happy may but every you like always future love and luck always now. Love you all Moby

Lennell,

Its been fun knowing
you these two years.
Sorry I have to go to N. B. I'll be seeing you.
